RE: Presentation / Dangers associated with teenage online activity

Deputy Darren Duke will be discussing the dangers associated with teenage online activity with parents on Monday, March 7th at 6:30 PM in the library of the Potlatch High School. During this presentation, School Resource Officer Darren Duke, will be discussing cyber-bullying and sexual exploitation. Deputy Duke will go over what types of things children are doing online, what cellular phone applications they are using and how parents can monitor their activities and intervene. This interactive presentation is expected to last an hour and all parents of school aged children are invited to attend. Another presentation in Troy is expected to be scheduled this spring.
