

Be an LCYAC Ambassador

WHAT IS A LATAH COUNTY YOUTH AMBASSADOR?

LCYAC Youth Ambassadors are high school students from six Latah County school districts.

These individuals have pledged to abstain from illegal substances and participation in other risky behaviors.

Our program promotes healthy attitudes, positive choices, leadership enhancement and service to our communities.

Many of our ambassadors hold leadership positions in school activities, BPA, FFA, 4-H, FCCLA and National Honors Society Chapters. They also participate in sports at the local and state level.

Our Ambassadors are active in their Idaho Drug Free Youth Chapters (iDFY) and attend summits, leadership retreats and trainings. iDFY encourages students to build state-wide friendships and provides peer support to live drug-free lives.

LCYAC Youth Ambassadors act as positive role models for their peers by showing them that they can have fun, happy successful lives without drugs and alcohol.

LCYAC Youth Ambassadors have gone on to serve their country in the military, become successful in college and continue advocacy work into adulthood.
