

Taxing District Budget Hearing information for Latah County is listed below. Residents who live within those districts may attend the public hearings and have input on how their tax dollars are being spent. Your assessment notice from the Assessor's Office will list the taxing districts in which you own property. If you reside in those taxing districts you are eligible to run for office or vote in any of their elections. Your tax bill from the Treasurer's Office will also have information on what you are being charged for the services provided by these taxing districts. If you have questions regarding this information please call the Auditor's Office at the Latah County Courthouse at 208 883-2249.
