Press Release

October 25, 2006

To All Media Outlets:

On October 24, 2007, at approximately 9:45 pm the Latah County Sheriff's Office received a report of a lost hunter in the Camas Creek area of Princeton, Idaho. The hunter, Marjorie Lienhard, age 55, of Princeton, was last seen on Camas Creek Road about 1 mile north of Garden Gulch Road at approximately 1:00 pm. Lienhard was supposed to meet her husband at the Camas Creek location between 4:30 pm and 5:00 pm. Lienhard never showed. Deputies responded to the area and contacted family members who had been searching for Lienhard.

Lienhard was last seen wearing a black stocking cap and fluorescent orange sweat shirt. She was driving a red 2006 Arctic Cat four wheeler. Lienhard is approximately 5'6" and 140 pounds with brown hair and brown eyes. Lienhard recently had back surgery and may be on pain medication.

The search for Lienhard was suspended at 2:30 am and will continue at 6:00 am this morning. If anyone matching this description is seen, please contact the Latah County Sheriff's Office at 208-882-2216.
