RE: Injury Collision

On April 22, 2007, at approximately 4:00 p.m. the Latah County Sheriff's Office received a report of a vehicle collision and the vehicle was on fire on Lenville Road near Moscow. Wesley Graham Orr, age 61, of Lewiston, had rolled his vehicle into the ditch and the vehicle caught fire. William and Mary Geary were working outside of their residence and heard the crash. David Bennett, age 45, of Moscow, also heard the crash and responded to scene. William Geary and David Bennett had to cut the seat belt from around Orr and extract him from the burning vehicle. Moscow Fire extinguished the vehicle. Moscow Ambulance transported Orr to Gritman Medical Center for minor injuries. Orr was cited for Failure to Purchase a Driver's License and Inattentive Driving.
